

The Waters of Highland Park –Notes on Public Process

1st Resolution –passed CDC and HDC Board –no opposition

2nd Resolution –those voting in favor of CUP and greenspace variance –passed CDC and HDC Board –no opposition

- No votes against, but some concern on the number of Variances required.

Community Meetings with HDC

June 18th, 2013

July 16, 2013

November 19, 2013

January 14, 2014

Interested Neighbors total of 10 people combined for first 3 public meetings, no opposition was expressed- only comments were what is the timeline for the project, know people who may be interested in moving in.

Letters sent to immediate neighbors for 2nd and 3rd meetings.

40 flyers to neighbors on Scheffer and Eleanor

Public Hearing Dates with the Zoning Committee of the Planning Commission:

63 postcards sent to immediate neighbors

December 12, 2013 –results-rezone was approved, other variances needed

January 16, 2013 – 1 person testified for, 3 against, HDC support

Pioneer Press Article:

November 29 - http://www.twincities.com/localnews/ci_24626201/st-paul-snelling-avenue-senior-living-center-proposed

Villager Articles on The Waters: (not HDC column, but full articles)

June 26, 2013

Dec 4, 2013

Dec. 18, 2013

Jan 8, 2014

-also published in HDC Column

Rezone -Public Hearing at City Council

February 5, 2014 –pending

HDC Website –since June 2013

In HDC Electronic Newsletter -4 + times in 2013 –distribution to over 1000 Highland Park Residents